

THREE CANDIDATES MEET AT ELMIRA

The Roosevelt, Bryan and Wooley Special Trains
Cross Paths Today.

BRYAN SCORES COWAN

Roosevelt Assaulted By Democratic Hoodlums In City of Elmira Last Night.

CROKER OUT FOR VIOLENCE

Elmira, N. Y., Oct. 30.—In a pouring rain this morning the three specials
of Bryan, Roosevelt and Wooley met
at the Erie depot. Bryan continued on his way west speaking first at Addison. Roosevelt departed for Corning and Wooley for Williamsport.

Bryan speaks at fourteen towns today tomorrow entering Ohio.
Bryan replied by telegraph to a statement in a Baltimore newspaper
that President Cowan of the Baltimore & Ohio road would cancel orders for cars if Bryan was elected. He said he imagined that Cowan's objection to his election was not based so much on a fear of business depression as the fact that he was opposed to government injunction, blacklist and railway polling bill which Cowan went to Washington to lobby for.

Assault on Roosevelt.
Elmira, N. Y., Oct. 30.—For the first time in New York State and in the home of the democratic candidate for governor, Theodore Roosevelt was assaulted on the streets of Elmira last night on his way to the places of meeting. He was in a carriage with former Senator Fassett and at several points along the route was pelted with eggs and vegetables, and greeted with the vilest epithets. He sat in dignified silence while the police looked on quiescently. The campaign club
from Corning was also assaulted
personally and a bitter fight ensued.
In the places of meeting the governor
had no interruptions. After it was over he said: "It was nasty conduct; the conduct of hoodlums."

Crocker IS for Violence.

New York, Oct. 30.—"My advice to democratic voters the country over
is to congregate about the polling
places on the evening of election day,
count noses, and then, if the election
returns for Bryan don't tally with their count, to go into the polling places and throw those fellows in charge of the ballot box into the street."

This startling recommendation,
which was made by Richard Croker at Tammany hall today in the course of a talk on several subjects, caused politicians in general to open their eyes.
"Bryan will not only carry New York State," said Croker, "but he will run the same all over the country.
He will be elected as certain as his name is Bryan. I never felt so confident of a thing in my life."

HE THREATENED TO CUT HER HEAD OFF

Case of Henry Van Duler, the Beloit
Colored Boy On Trial in the Municipal Court.

The municipal court is occupied today with the case of the State of Wisconsin vs. Harry Van Duler, charged with assault with intent to do great bodily harm. Van Duler is a colored boy from Beloit who was sent up from
there on the above charge.

It is alleged that Van Duler made advances toward a young lady who repulsed them. This so enraged Van Duler that he threatened to "cut her head off." The girl, Frankie O'Clair,
says that she was locked in her room
when the threat was made and that afterwards she attempted to get out and get away from him. She alleges that Van Duler ran after her with a carving knife and struck at her, hitting her on the hip, tearing her clothes but not inflicting any wounds.

She claims that if his arm had not been deflected he would probably have killed her. The day has been taken up in hearing the testimony of several witnesses other than Miss O'Clair.
The case is being tried before a jury
composed of Geo. H. Davey, Wm. Scofield, Ezra Dillenbeck, Leslie Treat, Thomas Nolan, G. A. Shurtliff, Thos.
Murray, David Conger, Wm. Winkley, Ole Keesey, Bart. Kehoe, J. C. Stanton.

The state is represented by District
Attorney Jackson and the defendant
by J. C. Road of Beloit.

Besides a wife, four daughters
are left. The daughters are Mrs.
Geo. Churchill, Monroe, Mrs. Chas.
Cormany, Chicago, Mrs. A. A. Pennett,
Beloit and Mrs. W. W. Evans of Janes-
ville. Notice of funeral later.

CRUSHED IN A PARADE.

Scores of Persons Hurt in Welcoming
British War Heroes.

London, Oct. 30.—The exuberant
throngs welcoming the city imperial volunteers home from the Boer war
proved unmanageable and the police
and soldiers were quite unable to stem
the ugly rushes. The crush of the populace became so terrible at the Marble arch that the people broke
through the cordon and when the field
was again cleared forty persons requiring the aid of ambulance surgeons were left lying on the ground, several
of them suffering from serious injuries. In narrow Fleet street the crowds broke down all the barriers
and sightseers, soldiers, police and city
imperial volunteers were mixed up in a confused mass, from which the volunteers had to be finally extricated in single file. A fractious cavalry horse stamped the crowd at Ludgate circus
and fifty persons who were injured
had to be attended to by the ambulance corps.

CLEVELAND'S VIEWS ON THE CAMPAIGN

Predicts That There Will Be a Land
slide for Bryan—Gives Reasons
for That Opinion.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 30.—A special to the Times from Princeton records a conversation alleged to have taken place between Grover Cleveland
and the Times correspondent. The dispatch goes on to say:

"Our conversation turned to the conditions in the west and after a little talk Mr. Cleveland said: 'My young man, you will see a landslide for Bryan
the morning after election. Of that I am confident.'
'To this I replied that the indications, according to the republican leaders are favorable to McKinley,
but he quickly replied: 'Of course
they are. That is policy; what I tell you is my private opinion.'
'There was no doubt concerning the former president's sincerity in his expressed belief, and when I asked him what reasons he had for so thinking, he continued:

'You do not understand the conditions. There are elements all over the country at work which it will be impossible to draw into line for McKinley. In the first place, union
labor has been a factor in politics
and it certainly is not favorable to the interests of capital.

'The traveling men are for Bryan.
These men, who are a small army,
are of the opinion that the republican party is a protector of corporations,
and by the amalgamation of industrial interests many of them have been thrown out of employment.

'In the Northwest, in Minnesota,
in Dakota, and Iowa there are many Hollanders. Sympathy for the Boers
who are their own flesh and blood
will induce them to support Bryan.
See if I am not correct.

'I have no desire to be drawn into any controversy over the results of the election, but if the republican managers honestly think that President McKinley will be re-elected, they are mistaken. They do not know the situation.'

WHO BOUGHT THE CHLORAL?

Missing Link in Chain of Evidence Against Peterson Murderers.

New York, Oct. 30.—The only link
that seems to be lacking in the chain
of evidence against the alleged murderers of Jennie Boeschle, the Peterson mill hand, is the identification of the purchaser of the drug. There is no question that she died from the effects of chloral poisoning, but it is not known where the drug was bought
or by whom it was obtained.

The police say that they know Mc-Allister tried to get a bottle refilled
at Kent's drug store on the evening
of the tragedy, and they say that they have the affidavit of one of the clerks
there that he refused to sell chloral to McAllister on that night.

The police have been canvassing the list of McAllister's friends in drug stores. There is no law in New Jersey against sale of chloral.

West Superior, Wis., Oct. 30.—In spite of rain a crowd of about 1,500

It was a crowd that was kept in good

speaker struck a responsive chord
when he made his principal talk upon
the question of prosperity.

ANGLO-GERMAN NOTE ANSWERED

Favor the Open Door—United States
Can Only Agree to First
Two Clauses.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 30.—The United States acquiesces with Great Britain and Germany in their joint agreement to maintain an open door
in China and to insist upon the preservation of the territorial integrity
of that empire, but practically ignores
the third article of the agreement
in reference to the action of Great Britain and Germany in the event of another power attempting to gain territorial advantages in China. Secretary Hay today drafted and transmitted to the two governments in question the reply of the United States in regard to the agreement between the governments of the kaiser and the queen.

ARE GOING BEFORE THE LEGISLATURE

Osteopaths of Wisconsin Want to Be on Equal Footing with Other Schools of Medicine.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 30.—Warren
B. Davis, secretary of the Milwaukee
College of Osteopathy, said last night
that the osteopaths of the state would ask the next legislature for recognition equal to that given graduates of other medical schools.

"We shall demand all the privileges
now given allopaths and homeopaths,"
said Mr. Davis. "We want to be recognized at least as the equals of the graduates of other medical schools
and we want one of our graduates on the state board of medical examiners."

There are between thirty and forty osteopaths now in Wisconsin. The Milwaukee college has an attendance
of thirty-five.

The faculty and the three higher
classes gave a reception for the freshmen last night.

FIFTEEN PERSONS LOST IN CARACAS

DEATH AND RUIN IN A VENE-ZUELAN EARTHQUAKE.

Many Buildings Damaged—Severe;
Foreign Representatives Have Narrow Escapes—President Castro, in Leaping From Balcony, Has Leg
Broken—U. S. Legation Wrecked.

Caracas, Venezuela, Oct. 30.—Caracas was visited by a severe earthquake
at 4:46 a. m. today. Fifteen persons were killed and many others injured.
Great damage was done to buildings, including the Pantheon and the churches.

The United States legation was badly damaged, but all the occupants escaped unhurt.

President Castro, who leaped from a balcony on the second floor of the government house, had a leg broken.
Mr. William Henry Doveton Haggard had a narrow escape, the second floor of the British legation having fallen upon him and buried him in the debris.

Reports from the interior show that the effects of the earthquake were widespread. The disturbances were felt as far as the region of the Andes.
There were many wonderful escapes.

Caracas has twice been shaken by earthquakes in recent years. In the middle of November, 1896, a severe disturbance occurred at midnight.
There were two distinct shocks. There was a panic in the city and most of the inhabitants fled to the open places.
There was little damage done, however, and no loss of life.

The city of Caracas, which has frequently suffered from earthquakes,
was visited last July by a series of seismic disturbances, which did great damage to property. There were seven terrific shocks in succession,
and the residents of the city were ter-

CARLIST CHIEF IS KILLED:

His Band Was Trying to Seize the Treasury at Badalona.

Madrid, Oct. 30.—A conflict between twenty-four Carlists and a detachment of gendarmes occurred near Badalona. The chief of the Carlists was killed and another man was wounded.
Three Remington rifles were captured.
The band retreated in the direction of Moncada, pursued by cavalry and infantry. The Carlist general, Solivar, has been arrested at Barcelona, and a number of other arrests have been made in connection with the uprising.
It appears the Badalona band of Car-lists, who wore red caps, summoned the gendarmes of Badalona to surrender,
but the latter attacked and dispersed
them. The aim of the Carlists was to seize the municipal treasury, as on the body of their chief was found a receipt thus worded: "Received from
the mayor of Badalona — pesetas,
which will be refunded when his majesty, King Carlos, occupies the throne
of his ancestors."

INJURED 1,200 IN THE LONDON ORGIE

London, Oct. 30.—The actual police records show that there were twelve hundred persons injured in yesterday's demonstration and there are many unrecorded cases. The papers demand that an official investigation of police laxity in permitting
the orgie.

TREACHERY AT JACOBSDAL.

Residents Admitted Boers to the Town
at Night to Attack the Garrison.

London, Oct. 30.—The war office has received the following from Lord Roberts, dated Pretoria, Oct. 23:

"Knox successfully engaged De Wet
Oct. 27. During the Boer retreat Knox caught De Wet in the Rensburg drift.
The Boers lost considerably and left
two guns and three wagons in Knox's hands. Another ammunition wagon was blown up by a shell. The British casualties were nil."

Referring to the Jacobsdal affair,
Lord Roberts says it was due to the treachery of the inhabitants, who admitted the Boers to their houses at night. They opened fire at daybreak.
Fourteen men were killed and thirteen
were wounded, mostly Cape Highlanders. Troops dispatched from the Modder river drove off the Boers. The houses of the treacherous inhabitants
were destroyed. Commandant Bosman was killed.

Farmers Held Responsible.

Cape Town, Oct. 30.—An official proclamation has been issued at Bloemfontein, in consequence of the
instances of "sniping" in that neighborhood. The order requires farmers to scour the vicinity of their farms
nightly to prevent sniping. Should sniping recur the nearest farmer to the scene of the shooting will be fined £200 ($973). In case of a second occurrence of the same nature the farm
will be burned. The attitude of the Dutch on the border of Cape Colony
is again disquieting.

BOERS HAVE A LARGE FORCE.

Said to Have 15,000 Men in the Field for Action.

London, Oct. 30.—A dispatch to The Daily Mail from Cape Town says a force of Boers attacked and surrounded a patrol of Cape police with a convoy near Hoopstad, Orange River
colony, last Wednesday, and a sharp
fight ensued.

"The police," says the correspondent, "were compelled to abandon two Maxims. Ultimately reinforced by the yeomanry, they succeeded in getting away with the convoy; but they lost seven killed, eleven wounded and fifteen captured. The colonials were outnumbered ten to one, and the engagement lasted two hours."

"The Boers have 15,000 men in the field, nearly half of whom are in Orange River Colony. These are divided into commandos of some 300 each,
but are capable of combinations for large operations."

Yamen At Hong Kong—Plan to Kill the Ruler.

sons were killed and two injured today in an explosion near the Chinese

MRS. BRYAN TAKES PART IN CAMPAIGN

OUT VOTE HUNTING WITH HER HUSBAND IN NEW-YORK.

Great Crowds of Women Gather At Points in Central New York and Cheer the Nebraskan's Wife—All
Speaking Records Smashed by Bryan
in the Trip Yesterday.

New York, Oct. 30.—Mrs. William J. Bryan went vote hunting with her distinguished husband yesterday. Attired in a blue-gray tailor-made dress
and wearing a black turban hat, she appeared on the rear platform of the special car at most places where Mr.
Bryan spoke and stood beside him
while he urged his arguments against imperialism and trusts. It was her first day on the road with her husband this campaign and she really enjoyed it.

Many Cheers for Her.

In all the crowds there was an unusually large proportion of women,
who paid more attention to Mrs. Bryan
than to her husband. The men also took special pride in doing homage
to the woman who will be the first lady in the land in the event of democratic victory and applauded gallantly whenever she appeared.

Mr. Bryan announced that Mrs. Bryan
would accompany the special for
the purpose of helping entertain the local committeemen and relieve him
from the care of conversing with them
between speeches, but the trip was made without intrusion by the local politicians and Mrs. Bryan's attention was given entirely to the comfort of her husband and greeting the throngs which crowded about the car. She did a good deal of handshaking on her own account and made friends for her husband.

Thirty Speeches in One Day.

All campaign speaking records
were smashed by Bryan yesterday.
When he finished in Brooklyn last night shortly before midnight he had made thirty speeches. In 1896 the largest number was twenty-seven, this being the record made by Mr. Bryan.
The speeches today averaged a little more than eleven minutes in length
and the time consumed was five hours.
No large cities were on the route up
the state, but all the places visited
turned out extraordinary large crowds
for their size. Bryan divided his time between trusts and imperialism,
with slight reference to the money issue.

OUTLOOK BRIGHT IN MICHIGAN.

Republicans Say Bryan Will Carry
Only Five Counties.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 30.—The Republican State Central committee has completed its first canvass of the state
and Charles Moore, director of the campaign in Michigan, has issued a statement, which says that the facts
demonstrate that a large majority of the electors are in favor of the reelection of President McKinley, and that there is everywhere manifest a quiet
but firm determination to get out the full vote of the state. Bryan is given only five counties out of the eighty-
three in the state, and the McKinley
majority is figured, in round numbers, at 75,000.

WE MUST NOT RISK OUR PROSPERITY

WHY LOCAL BUSINESS MEN WILL VOTE FOR MCKINLEY.

Country Is In a Prosperous Condition and It Would Be Folly to Change and Risk the Perils Likely to Result in the Election of Bryan.

Herewith is given in substance some of the reasons why leading Janesville citizens will cast their ballots on November 6 for William McKinley for president. The prominent idea, conveyed in the interviews gathered by the Gazette reporter, is that the country is in a prosperous condition and that it would be folly to change and risk the perils that might follow the election of Bryan. The business men hold that it is safest to continue the present administration. The interviews are as follows.

Dr. W. H. Judd.—The administration of the republican party has at all times been a success. As long as we enjoy good times it is well to let good enough alone. If anyone ever had an excuse for voting for the republican ticket they must certainly have this year.

C. C. Bennett.—I don't believe that this is a good time for a change. Another reason why I will vote for McKinley and Roosevelt is because I have always been a republican.

M. G. Jeffris.—The republican ticket should be voted because the demands of the country absolutely require it. Our industrial progress and our standing as a nation and our prosperity at home and our prestige abroad is more than sufficient reason for the re-election of President McKinley.

Charles I. Sloan.—It's absolutely the only thing for a white man to do. It will mean continued prosperity. It will be the best for all.

Dr. James Mills.—In times of prosperity like these to vote the republican ticket would be the only thing to do. We should take no chances. I have at all times voted the ticket.

William G. Wheeler.—The republican party take the only sound position on the money question. I do not believe in the democratic position in reference to our Cuban and Philippine policy. Every pledge which was made by the republican party four years ago has been redeemed.

Capt. W. T. Vankirk.—President William McKinley is the only safe man in the country today. That is reason enough I believe.

M. P. Richardson.—I sanction the republican ticket first because I am a republican. Second, because I am in favor of sound money. Third, because the party has a political policy regarding the Philippines. Fourth, because the party has good men in power, where if Bryan was in control Croker would be one of the national leaders.

Walter Helms.—The republican party stands for everything in this country that is prosperous. McKinley, as president, has been the best. If Bryan had been president he would have done no different in regard to the Philippines than has McKinley.

Benjamin R. Hill.—I always voted against the enemies of the country and I regard the democratic party as such. I always voted as I shot during the war of the rebellion and that was straight.

John W. Carpenter.—If I was mean enough to vote the democratic ticket this fall I would want someone to kick me right into the river and I would agree not to try to get out.

Mayor V. P. Richardson.—I am going to vote the republican ticket because the policy of that party is to build up commerce and all industrial enterprises, while the only policy of the democratic party seems to be that of opposition. As a young man and one who has his own fortune to work out I can see greater opportunities in the building up process than in anything else.

W. J. McIntyre.—To put it in a few words I believe that it is for the best interests of all that the people should allow the present administration to continue. Bryan's election would mean a national calamity.

William Hyzer.—There is no reason that I know of why I should not vote the republican ticket this fall.

Hon. A. A. Jackson.—This fall I will vote the republican ticket because the party is right on the money question. Because the administration of President William McKinley has been a clean and honest one. No better man than he can be found in the country.

O. D. Bates.—At the present time I don't believe that it would be advisable to have a change of administration. The republican party during the past four years has done more for this country than the democratic party ever did.

C. H. Spencer.—We don't want a change. The prosperity that we now enjoy is sufficient. Let the good work continue. In other words let well enough alone.

Hon. James Sutherland.—I helped organize the republican party in this state. I believe in the principles of the republican party and especially the tariff. Four years ago I was opposed to a single gold standard. The gold standard as passed by congress, fixing the gold dollar as the unit of value, I strongly favor.

District Attorney W. A. Jackson.—There is no reason that I can see why anybody who voted for McKinley four years ago should not do so again. Good times that we have had verify this.

Philo Loudon.—President McKinley is one of the greatest statesmen in the world today. His Philippine policy has been an excellent one. At all times he is working for the good of the United States and is not trying to fill his own pockets.

Alderman S. H. Gilkey.—All the reason why McKinley will get my vote is simply because it means money in my pockets. The same state of affairs will exist for all.

C. W. Brooks.—My vote will go to McKinley for the continuance of good times. Business all over the country during the past four years shows this state of affairs.

Silas Hayner.—Sound money and prosperity should be continued. President McKinley and the republican party are first-class for all time to come. Bryan don't represent anything but what is bad and vicious.

Dr. E. D. Roberts.—I will vote for the republican party on account of business in general. Take for instance the horse market four years ago. On account of poor times there was no demand for horses. Look at the condition of things today. Collections of all kinds are also good.

How sweet it is to rest
My Father, on Thy breast.
Love, hope, and peace to feel,
While our wounds Thy balm would heal.

How sweet it is to know
Of the story of the long ago,
When Thou, a Messenger of Love,
Wast sent to us from up above.

Sent to us that we
Our sins might be forgiven;
Sent to help us on
In the right path to heaven.

I thank Thee, Father,
For Thy great and noble sacrifice,
And I pray that Thy kind and gentle love
May lead me onward to the home above.

WISCONSIN BUILDING PLANS.

Those Made by Ferry & Clas are Selected by the Commission.

The Wisconsin commission to the Pan-American Exposition has accepted the plans for the Wisconsin building at the big Buffalo project, the sketches prepared by Ferry & Clas, being the ones which the commissioners preferred and chose out of the three submitted. The plans are to be open for the inspection of contractors tomorrow, and bids will be received at the office of the commission in the Goldsmith building, until Nov. 3.

The Wisconsin building is to be in no sense a place for exhibits, but simply an attractive house to serve as headquarters for the commission, and a rendezvous for Wisconsin people visiting the Exposition. It is to cost in the neighborhood of $6,000, the commissioners having decided to appropriate about this sum out of the $25,000 placed at its disposal to cover the expenses of Wisconsin's representation at the Exposition. The rest of the sum, or most of it, will be devoted to securing exhibits from the various industrial concerns of the state.

The Wisconsin building is to be two stories high, and its material will be wood and staff. It is not unlikely that the work of building will be done by Buffalo contractors, as no local concern may care to take a job so far from home. The commission hopes to have the structure begun with as little delay as possible, so as to have it completed by Jan. 1. The location given the commission is considered one of the most desirable on the grounds.

Probably half or two-thirds of his lung surface barely knows the contact of oxygen. He's the kind of man, who, when a cough attacks him, goes galloping down the road toward consumption. Many such a man has found strength and healing for weak lungs and tissues lacerated by coughing and drained by hemorrhages, in the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. The healing power of this medicine in pulmonary diseases seems little short of marvelous at times, so extreme are the conditions which it cures. The "Discovery" contains no alcohol, and no narcotics.

"When I started to take your 'Golden Medical Discovery,' writes Mr. A. F. Novaty, of New York, N. Y., Box 1437, 'I had a regular consumptive cough, of which I was afraid, and everybody cautioned me and warned me concerning it. I was losing weight rapidly, was very pale and had no appetite, whatever. Now my condition is changed entirely. I do not cough at all, have gained eight pounds in weight, have recovered my healthy color, and my appetite is enormous. I can recommend your medicine to everybody who may be in need of the same, as it is a sure cure.'

FIXES DAY FOR PRAISE.

President McKinley's Thanksgiving Proclamation Names Nov. 29.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 30.—The state department today issued the following:

"By the President of the United States of America—A Proclamation: It has pleased Almighty God to bring our nation in safety and honor through another year. The works of religion and charity have everywhere been manifest. Our country through all its extent has been blessed with abundant harvests. Labor and the great industries of the people have prospered beyond all precedent. Our commerce has spread over the world. Our power and influence in the cause of freedom and enlightenment have extended over distant seas and lands. The lives of our official representatives and many of our people in China have been marvelously preserved. We have been generally exempt from pestilence and other great calamities and even the tragic visitation which overwhelmed the city of Galveston made evident the sentiments of sympathy and Christian charity by virtue of which we are one united people.

"Now, therefore, I, William McKinley, president of the United States, do hereby appoint, and set apart Thursday, the 29th of November next, to be observed by all the people of the United States, at home or abroad, as a day of thanksgiving and praise to Him who holds the nations in the hollow of His hand. I recommend that they gather in their several places of worship and devoutly give Him thanks for the prosperity wherewith he has endowed us, for the seed time and harvest, for the valor, devotion and humanity of our armies and navies and for all His benefits to us as individuals and as a nation; and that they humbly pray for the continuance of His divine favor, for concord and amity with other nations and for righteousness and peace in all our ways.

"In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done at the city of Washington this twenty-ninth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and twenty-fifth.

"By the President:
"WILLIAM MCKINLEY.
JOHN HAY, Secretary of State."

The Warren avenue police are looking for a man described by Della as tall, slender and the possessor of a dark mustache. The little girl encountered the man in California avenue near Lake street about 8:30 o'clock last night. He slipped up behind her and snipped off the braid before she knew what had happened. He then darted into an alley and disappeared.

McKinley on Labor and Capital.

Alliance, O., Oct. 30.—At a Republican meeting held here the reading of a personal letter to W. H. Morgan from President McKinley was the signal for enthusiasm. The letter is in part as follows:

"American labor and capital, working hand in hand, are of mutual advantage and in friendly co-operation will secure industrial triumphs as yet unknown. I have no sympathy with those teachings which incite envy and hatred among our people and would divide them into hostile camps. May this great meeting stamp with its disapproval the wicked doctrine of class distinction, which has no place in our free government, and mark a distinct advance in good relations between employer and employed."

MR. BRYAN'S WARNING

"If there is anyone who believes that the gold standard is a good thing, or that it must be maintained, I warn him not to cast his vote for me because I promise him it will not be maintained in this country longer than I am able to get rid of it."—Hon. William Jennings Bryan, Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 16, 1896.

THE TWO DANGERS.

The election of Bryan means not only free silver on a 16 to 1 basis, but it means free trade on a basis of wholesale slaughter to American industries.

The country has never had the misfortune to contend with the free silver heresy in operation, but it had four years of free trade theories, from which it has not yet fully recovered.

It will be remembered that long before the inauguration of Grover Cleveland, in 1893, that many factories were closed, and that in less than twelve months after the democratic party assumed control of the government the industries of the country were badly demoralized. These conditions prevailed because American labor could not compete with the half-paid labor of the old world.

It was predicted, as time went on, that the nation would adjust itself to the new and deplorable conditions, but such was not the case, and bankruptcy and "panic" were common experiences. Capital was without remuneration and labor without employment, or if employed at all, at greatly reduced wages; the country was overrun with tramps and Coxey's army marching through the land toward the seat of government, found many followers and a host of sympathizers. The seeds of socialism and discontent, born of idleness were scattered broadcast, and four years more of like experiences would have brought to the country an abundant harvest of malcontent. Not only this, but the nation's credit was impaired and its treasury depleted.

This is a brief statement of history that is fresh in the minds of every one. It was the result of an experiment with a theory under the direction of one of the most conservative leaders in the democratic party. It failed, not because of mismanagement, but because it was un-American when put to the practical test;

it was a disappointment to democracy and a grave disaster to the country.

In the campaign of 1896, after four years of unsettled conditions, the young man, Bryan, from Nebraska, captured his party by suggesting a remedy of 16 to 1. He said "Create more wealth by the manufacture of the free and unlimited coinage of silver on a fifty-cent basis and then distribute it freely and everybody will have plenty of money and the factories can go to Halifax or any other country where people want to work for a living. The idea was novel and taking and people followed the new leader like a flock of sheep. He promised to be a second Moses and his followers believed that for forty years to come he would lead them through the wilderness on a diet of manna and quail on toast, which would be an improvement on plain soup without money and without price.

Mr. Bryan failed for lack of votes, but he retained his hold on the party, and a portion of the same deluded following are shouting for him again. His election means free trade and free silver. Either one of these heresies would curse the country, but the combination would bankrupt it beyond redemption for a generation.

It is perfectly natural that the capital of the country, without regard to party, is opposed to Mr. Bryan; capital has some regard for self-protection; it is just as natural that intelligent labor should oppose him on the same grounds.

This combined opposition has already sealed his defeat as the verdict will show one week from today.

Lake Mills Leader: This senatorial district is fortunate in having for a candidate Senator J. M. Whitehead, who has proved himself to be the right man in the right place. During the two sessions of his term he proved himself to be the peer of any man in the senate, and there were many members there who have served many terms. He was at the front in advocating the various tax reform measures and was the father of the Tax Commission law. He is not only noted for his wonderful ability, but for his integrity of character. The people believe in him and will so decide when they get to the polls.

Milwaukee Sentinel: "The largest and most expensive standing army this country ever had was the army of wage-earners standing around waiting for something to do during the last democratic administration."

That was militarism armed with soup ladles patiently waiting to fire a protest against its own foolishness. The shot was fired in November, 1896, and will be repeated with a heavier charge next Tuesday.

American tin plate is not only in demand but tinnermen are so scarce that local dealers find it almost impossible to find them. McKinley prosperity has struck the tin industry from tin plate to tinsmiths, and yet some people want a change. Mr. Bryan is not tinner, but if he ever has a chance he will be a tin smasher, in which American tin plate and the tinsmith will be so badly damaged that neither will recover.

The Milwaukee Journal gave the use of its editorial page last Saturday to Rev. Mr. Tittsworth, pastor of Plymouth church, and in return for the compliment Mr. Tittsworth surrendered his pulpit on Sunday evening to a Journal representative. The exchange of courtesies developed the fact that the pulpit and the press, in their best estate, are not so far apart as many suppose. The enterprise of the Journal is commendable.

The Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin contained in last Saturday's issue a very amusing schedule of how the Rev. Tittsworth employed his time in editing the Journal. The writer was evidently familiar with his topic, including the time of day that the carrier pigeons, connected with the Journal service, are fed. Mr. Tittsworth will have a pleasant souvenir for his scrap book.

The Milwaukee Sentinel has been doing good work during the campaign; its editorial page is strong and vigorous, and its news service compares favorably with the best metropolitan sheets. The state field is thoroughly covered and well handled. The Sentinel is a good newspaper.

INVITATIONS SENT OUT IN A PEANUT

Invitations have been issued to a Halloween party in a unique way by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Diehls. The party is to be held at their home, 15 Ruger avenue on Halloween night. All the pleasanties and pranks of this famous old night are to be indulged in and such things as "bobbing for apples" and looking into the looking-glass at midnight will keep the large number of people who are invited in a remarkable good humor until the "wee sma' hours." The invitations are something entirely new. A peanut was taken and the nut taken out of the shell and the invitation placed inside the shell. It was then tied up with pretty ribbons and so sent out.

"It Sort o' Looks as if I'd Have to Expand."

BRYAN'S INSINCERITY.

Trying to Get Away from the Democratic Record on Trusts.

"Plunged in a gulf of deep despair, Ye wretched sinners lie."

These words were used by William Jennings Bryan in his remarks before the Chicago conference on trusts on September 16, 1899. They are as applicable to the present story as when he quoted them.

Few instances of artful dodging by men high in politics equal Bryan's flop on the trust question. A little over a year ago he attended the Chicago conference on trusts. On September 16, 1899, he made a speech. It is printed in full in the official record of the debates published by the Chicago conference on trusts. On September 16, 1899, he made a speech. It is printed in full in the official record of the debates published by the Chicago conference on trusts.

"Now this is a conference. We have not met here to destroy the trusts." So said Mr. Bryan in the course of his speech on September 16. Assembled so. There was nothing in Mr. Bryan's speech which looked toward all trusts.

He proposed regulation. He ended in view he advocated. He proposed in congress a few strengthening the federal power trusts. He said:

"The gentleman suggests that it is a difficult thing to get two-thirds of both houses to favor such an amendment. That is true; it is a difficult thing, but if the people want to destroy the trusts they can control two-thirds of both houses and three-fourths of the states. But what is the alternative? Sit down and do nothing?"

The principal change desired by Bryan at this time was presented by him in these terms:

"That the federal government has, or should have, the right to impose such restrictions as congress may think necessary upon every corporation which does business outside of the state in which it was organized."

No destruction there. Mr. Bryan said later: "I am not sure that the constitution would prohibit such an act of congress as I suggest."

Not certain even as to the power to regulate.

The republicans, however, were sure that there was no such authority in the constitution, and that without it no effective law could be passed. They proposed, therefore, to amend the constitution that the precise thing pretendedly favored by Mr. Bryan might be done, not in an uncertain or doubtful way, with everything unsettled until a case could be carried to the supreme court, but by building on a solid basis from the beginning.

Then the Bryanites in congress cast an almost solid vote against the republican proposition and defeated it. And ever since then Bryan has wriggled and twisted and tried, by loud general clamor about trusts, to get away from his own record.

But he cannot squirm away from it. William Jennings Bryan must toast on the spit of his own contriving. Never was a man more flagrantly inconsistent than Bryan has been on the trust question. He does not eat his own words; he bolts them whole without even trying to chew them. Of a truth it may be said:

"Plunged in a gulf of deep despair, Ye wretched sinners lie."

TOO BUSY FOR POLITICS.

Texas Farmers Have No Time to Join the Democratic Clubs.

The farmers in many of the counties of Texas are too busy to organize democratic clubs. In Grayson county the party has given over an attempt to get the farmers in line. The reason given by Chairman Barton Dillard is:

"Some weeks ago when we started the work of organizing clubs we found that the farmers were too busy in their fields to attend the meetings, and it was thought best to defer the work. But now, within four weeks of the election, we find them just as busy, perhaps busier than ever, and there will be nothing further done in the matter of organizing clubs."

When a Texas farmer is too busy to attend a democratic club he must be busy indeed, and the fact that he is so engaged bodes no good for the future of the democratic party in that particular section.

BRYAN DODGING QUESTIONS.

He Declines to Tell What Everyone Is So Anxious to Hear.

Mr. Bryan is dodging—busy dodging. He has often refused to answer questions as to his policy, if elected, once at Lincoln, Neb.; once at Ann Arbor, Mich.; and once at Circleville, O. To corner the dodger the republican national committee has put these questions directly to him—questions which are vital for every citizen, republican and democrat alike, to have answered by the 6th of November, but Mr. Bryan says he will discuss public questions at his own time and place. He will have ample opportunity after November 6, as time; place, Lincoln, Neb.

The questions are: Will you, if elected, pay the national obligations in gold or silver?

Will you, if elected, make use of the United States army to forcibly establish a stable government for Aguinaldo?

Are you in favor of reenacting the Wilson tariff law or one similar thereto?

Are you in favor of disfranchising the colored citizens of the south?

Do you approve of the action of the democrats in congress in defeating the anti-trust amendment last June?

You have lately gone on record as opposing a life tenure in the civil service. How long a tenure would you permit?

You have lately charged the republicans with collecting a large fund from monopolies and coercing voters. Will you mention any monopoly from which the republicans made such collection and also mention one specific case of coercion?

Mr. Bryan will not answer these questions. He cannot do so and not weaken himself.

PROSPERITY IN THE SOUTH.

Less Need Than Ever of Money in That Section to Handle Crops.

The unchecked rise of trade prosperity in the south is certainly phenomenal. Bank clearings in the southern section, notwithstanding a shrinkage of 65 per cent. at Galveston, rose in September 5 per cent. over 1899, and such gains are given as 130 per cent. at Savannah, 31 per cent. at New Orleans, and 21 per cent. at Birmingham. All this shows plainly enough why the south drew $5,000,000 currency from New York bank, last month, against only $2,000,000 a year ago.

The prosperity demands of the south for more currency, with which to circulate its vast increase in wealth, is affecting every money market of the world. The balance of trade in favor of this country has, during the last three or four years, become so enormous, that, only by selling evidences of indebtedness on a wholesale scale, have foreign nations of late been able to prevent great exports of gold to the United States. Great Britain, Sweden, Russia and Germany have obtained important loans in this country, thereby obtaining considerable American gold instead of losing their own gold. The indebtedness of the world, however, to the southern states has increased unexpectedly with recent developments in the cotton market; so that either there must be further large sales of foreign bonds in the United States, or else gold in great quantities must come here.

Four English bull dogs, his favorite road horse Flora, and a fine Angora cat were in the contingent. The dogs are all of the best English bulls. One, a heavy lantern-jawed brindle called Clip, cost $4,000. He is acknowledged to be the second of his kind in value in the world. The total value of the other three is $6,000.

These dogs have a complete kitchen of their own, and they get the best of sirloin steaks. Mr. Croker will send for his tandem of horses. Boxes of supplies for the dogs and four large trunks of clothing have also arrived. The groom said that the trunks contained 40 suits of clothes, which cost from $50 to $100 a suit.

And the poor of New York and other eastern cities must either swelter in the heat of summer without ice, or come to terms with Croker, pay what his ice trust demands and help to feed sirloin steaks to young Dick's bull dogs.

BRYAN'S OWN MONOPOLY.

Unlimited Protection for the Advocate of Government by Injunction.

The protection which William J. Bryan secured when he became a monopolist and copyrighted his book is of an extraordinary character.

First, Bryan's monopoly in the book is not left to the ordinary protection of the law, but is specially secured through "government by injunction"—the precise thing which he and his party denounce.

If anyone should venture to infringe on Bryan's monopoly and reprint his book, an injunction would be clapped on the infringer forthwith.

Manufacturers have no such protection as that.

In the second place, Bryan's protection is unlimited, whereas manufacturers are only protected up to a certain point. If a manufacturer raises his price beyond the level covered by the tariff duty the foreign article at once comes in and competes against him.

Not so with Bryan's copyrighted book. Let him charge what he pleases, there is still no competition. He can demand any price, and the buyer has no choice but to pay it or go without the book.

It is right that authors should have this special protection and be shielded by injunction. The shame is that William J. Bryan, in the full enjoyment of such protection and getting rich by it, should go around the country demanding that protection be taken away from other people and denouncing the very process which is the only adequate defense of his copyright—government by injunction.

Austria Next in Line.

It is said that Austria-Hungary is soon to come to the United States for a loan; though the information to that effect is rather indefinite. Austria-Hungary is, however, now engaged in a great financial effort to become a country with a gold standard of values firmly established and with a credit unquestioned. For the consummation of this purpose it needs gold, and the United States is the nation that has the metal to spare. It need, therefore, occasion no surprise any day to hear of a large loan to Austria-Hungary.

SOUTHERNERS OPPOSE BRYAN.

Some Reasons Given Why Maryland Will Choose Republican Electors.

One of the most encouraging features of the campaign which is now drawing to a close is the unanimity with which the business men of Baltimore rallied to the support of McKinley and Roosevelt in the last four weeks of the struggle. So spontaneous and general has been their support that there is little doubt remaining that the state will give a good majority for the republican national electors.

The reason for this is that the business men of Baltimore do not want to disturb conditions which are favorable to them and to the producing classes of the south and north alike. What a few of the most representative men of the city say may be found below:

Hon. Robert C. Davidson, Mayor of Baltimore from 1889 to 1891: "I refuse to vote for Mr. Bryan because I believe that no more blighting, withering disaster could befall this nation than would ensue upon his induction into office and the resultant evils which would inevitably follow the enactment of Bryanism into legislation."

J. Ellen Jenkins, Baltimore: "I am as thorough a democrat as ever came under the name. The election of Mr. Bryan would at once mean the shutting down of every cotton and woolen factory in the country, as well as every steel and iron-producing plant. Labor would be thereby thrown out of employment. Yet Mr. Bryan professes to be the friend of the workman. I cannot vote for what Mr. Bryan represents."

Joseph R. Walker, Baltimore: "Mr. McKinley has shown in his letter that we need have no fear of imperialism. On the other hand, Mr. Bryan, in his innumerable speeches, has shown that he will always be the enemy of business confidence, of sound money and of conservative government."

J. Southgate Lemmon, ex-confederate and a leading lawyer of Baltimore: "We know what to expect from McKinley, while the dangers of Bryan, spurred on by Altgeld, Tillman and similar leaders, cannot be estimated. If the Spanish war or the treaty port imperialism, Mr. Bryan should have opposed the one and defeated the other. He did neither."

Robert Ramsey, leading grain merchant, Baltimore: "The lesson of four years ago seems to have had no effect upon those who have constituted themselves the leaders of what they are pleased to call the democratic party."

D. K. Este Fisher, Baltimore: "I was brought up a democrat, and have always been a democrat, and would like to vote the democratic ticket if I felt that I could do so, but I cannot vote for Bryan, believing that in doing so I would strike a blow at our sound currency system."

A. H. S. Post, savings bank director, Baltimore: "I well remember in the fall of 1895 the depression and stagnation in every branch of trade and commerce. I dare not think of the conditions that would become a reality were Mr. Bryan successful at the coming election."

And there are thousands of others of like tenor that are available.

STEVENSON'S WAR RECORD.

Where This Patriot Stood When the Country Was in Trouble.

When Adlai Stevenson was a candidate for vice president in 1892 the New York Press, in its issue of August 18, 1892, published a cartoon entitled "Mr. Stevenson's Patriotic Services."

With the cartoon were published the following paragraphs, showing Adlai Stevenson's record as a patriot and an American:

Stevenson said he was glad Lincoln was shot and that he should have been killed earlier. Affidavit of William B. Whiffen, editor of the Metamora Sentinel, where Stevenson resided in 1862.

Stevenson was throughout the war a friend of the copperheads. Affidavit of Rev. G. B. Snedeker, pastor of the Methodist church in Mr. Stevenson's home in 1862.

Stevenson sold revolvers to traitors. Affidavit of Parker Gardner, Washburn, Ind., Aug. 6, 1892.

"If 'Gen.' Stevenson could produce even one little bit of a speech or public utterance made by him in 1863 or 1864 in favor of a vigorous prosecution of the war for the union, or sustain the hands of Abraham Lincoln; loyal people may forget or believe themselves mistaken in their firm recollection that in 1863 and 1864 A. E. Stevenson was a rank copperhead politician and candidate for office in Woodford county."—Ex. Gov. Hamilton of Illinois, who lived in Bloomington during the war.

"Stevenson's name appeared on the record of membership of the Knights of the Golden Circle which I captured."—Statement of Maj. J. Olmstead, now of Los Angeles, Cal.

Bryan's Ally, Aguinaldo.

Dr. Preston S. King, who served for over two years in the Philippines as medical officer of the Utah artillery, has just returned from the islands. He adds the weight of his testimony to the well known fact that the insurrection in the islands is prolonged by the hope that Bryan is holding out to Aguinaldo. He says:

"Filipino resistance to American authority is now tottering, and all that sustains the remnants of Aguinaldo's army is the hope that Bryan has elected and is able to bring about a reversal of the policy of the government. I have frequently heard this sentiment expressed by prominent Filipinos. Since the national conventions the Filipinos have been considerably encouraged and have showed greater activity than usual. On one or two occasions they have attacked with considerable vigor, but the effort is all due, I think, to a desire to keep up the appearance of a stubborn warfare until after the election."

NOT A LOCAL ISSUE.

Bryan's Off-Hand Remark About Trusts and His Connection with Them.

At Pittsburg, Kan., while Mr. Bryan was discussing the trust question, some one in the crowd shouted an inquiry about the New York ice trust. Mr. Bryan replied that the ice trust is a local affair and concerns the people of New York.

Can he mean by this that a trust may be of the worst possible criminal character, like this ice trust, but so long as it is a "local affair" is none of his business, nor does not concern the American people?

In other terms, is it that the people of every community in the United States may be criminally squeezed by "trusts" and he will not care so long as the squeezing is only localized in each and every locality?

The principles of such philosophy are certainly broad enough to charitably cover not only every trust which specially oppresses one locality, like the New York ice trust, but also every one which localizes its operations to a particular section, like Senator Jones' cotton bale trust in the south.

According to this idea a trust like the Standard Oil company, in order to be like the ice trust and cotton bale trust, has only to go by different names, and take out different charters in different states or groups of states, so that its national operations are legally only a sum total of its local operations. Bryan will, however, in the case of the New York ice trust, find it difficult to localize interest in it to New York as Senator Jones finds it difficult to localize interest in his cotton bale trust to himself. The national democratic party made the "ice trust" a national issue when it delegated Van Wyck, one of the largest stockholders in it, to write the anti-trust plank. Bryan himself increased national interest in it as an issue by the recognition which he has given to Ice Trust Stockholder Croker, instead of to the non-ice holding element of New York democrats led by Hill and Coler.

In similar manner, the cotton bale trust has been given a national interest by the fact that Senator Jones, who made out of this trust the money which puts him in the St. Louis Globe Democrat's list of "Sixteen millionaires of Arkansas," was made chairman of the national democratic party.

Finally, it would be well to remember that C. L. Hncock, a splendid soldier, said in 1880 that the tariff was a local issue. He was buried beneath an avalanche of votes in consequence.

ARMY INTERFERENCE?

Some Facts for Democratic Spell-Binders to Peruse and Ponder.

While all this speechmaking is going on about the army and the danger of "militarism," it would be well to bear in mind the facts given below:

The army has never interfered but twice in labor troubles, and then after state resources were exhausted.

The first occasion was in the Debs trouble in Chicago in 1894.

The city government was powerless to stop the rioting, and John P. Altgeld, then governor, would not let the state militia be used.

Grover Cleveland, democrat, sent troops to Chicago, and the rioting was ended.

In the Coeur d'Alene district in Idaho mining troubles precipitated the rule of the mob.

The county authorities were helpless. Frank Steunenberg, twice elected as governor by the democratic-populist fusion element, called on the federal government for aid.

It was granted.

In neither case was there any interference by the national troops, who are in reality the national police, until the power of the local authority was gone.

Prosperity for Swine Raisers.

Live hogs were worth $2.50 and $3.70 in the Chicago stock yards in July, 1896. The price on October 3, 1900, was $3.50 and $5.00. The farmer is paid $1.00 per hundred more for his choice hogs than he was in 1896, when the democrats were in control of the national policy.

REMEMBER!

"The democratic party stands where it did in 1896 on the money question."—William J. Bryan, at Zanesville, O., September 4.

STRAW.

There is an old saying—all know it. 'Tis not out of place then to blow it. To find out the course Of the wind, or its force, A straw will successfully show it.

The old proverb, I'm happy to say, Is illustrated apt day by day: For in every newspaper Deserter's the caper, From the party of mouthy Bill J.

The result of these straws, be it known, Is that the G. O. party has grown; And as it has done before It will do once more, Which next fall will be very well known.

I am free to confess the great fact— The believers in which there's no lack— That the coming election Will be the selection Of Teddy and our own Billy Mac.

Then rally forward! with never a break, For we very well know what's the stake; It is honor and fame Or a dishonored name For our country—that's why we're awake!

The Republican party remember And know when their beefsteak is tender, So let the Demos, and Pops, Continue their flaps— The verdict will be right next November.

Then rally once more for the right! We still have the same foe to fight; Never look for a calm Till we carry the palm, And victory brings daylight from night.

The forthcoming election by all Will be an almost unanimous call For our worthy president To continue a resident Of the White House, by endorsement next fall!

WILLIAM M. PERKINS.

BRYAN ON THE FARMERS.

An Emphatic Refutation of the Populist Oracle's Insolent Assertions.

"Republican farmers, look at your wives, beset by 12 months of incessant toil each year. You can't take them to summer resorts and resting places. You ought to be ashamed of yourselves when you look at them, to vote the republican ticket."—W. J. Bryan, in his Fort Scott Speech.

So long as farmers are willing to allow themselves to be gulled by such political demagogues as you are, and pay you from $500 to $2,500 for a speech that is not worth 25 cents on the dollar, so long they will eat corn bread and wear wooden shoes. But what are the facts in the case? In our little bank at Walnut the individual deposits are $43,988.25, which is nearly twice as much as they have ever been since we have had a bank. And what is so at Walnut is so in every bank in the state, and in every state in the union. In the last two weeks two farmers near Walnut had sales to pay the mortgages on their farms coming due next spring. The sale of the one amounted to $1,275, and $800 of it was paid in cash. The other one's sale amounted to $907.50, and he received $800 in cash. When the sale was over they had nearly all the money in their hand and could deposit it in the bank and be ready to meet the mortgages when due. The rate of interest was low. At sales several years ago the rate of interest was high, and frequently there was not enough paid in to pay the auctioneer and for printing the sale bills. When the notes became due it was very difficult to make collections. This illustrates the difference in the times then and now among the farmers. The farmers come to town in buggies and carriages. They drive fine horses, have comfortable homes, plenty to eat and wear, and many of them have a nice bank account to their credit, and are not the paupers that you represent them to be.—Walnut (Kan.) Eagle.

BRYAN FOR FREE WOOL.

Figures Which Answer the Democratic Candidate's Bold Declaration.

"It is immaterial, in my judgment, whether the sheep growers receive any benefit from the tariff or not. . . . I am for free wool."—W. J. Bryan, in Congress.

The sheep raiser can answer Mr. Bryan's argument by quoting these figures:

Locations.	Wilson Tar. (Free Wool.)	Dingley Tar. (Protection.)
Boston	50c	50c
Chicago	50c	50c
Michigan	50c	50c
Terry, fine Delaine, clean	30c	50c
Terry, fine medium, clean	20c	50c
clean wool, clean	20c	50c
Wool, clean	20c	50c

"I am for free wool," says W. J. Bryan.

What say the wool producers?

ELECTION NOTICE.

To the Electors of Rock County:

Office of County Clerk, October 29, 1900.

Notice is hereby give that a general election is to be held in the several towns, wards and election precincts in the county of Rock, on the 6th day of November, 1900, at which the officers named below are to be chosen. The names of the candidate for each office to be voted for, whose nominations have been certified to atthis office, are given opposite the title of the office and under the appropriate party or other designation, each in its proper column, and the questions submitted to a vote are stated below

INFORMATION TO VOTERS.

The following instructions are given for the information and guidance of voters. A voter upon entering the polling place and giving his name and residence, will receive a ballot from the ballot clerk which must have inscribed thereon the names or initials of both ballot clerks, and no other ballot can be used. Upon receiving his ballot, the voter must retire alone to a booth or compartment and prepare the same for voting. A ballot clerk may inform the voter as to the proper manner of marking a ballot, but he must not advise or indicate in any manner whom to vote for. The voter if he wishes to vote for all the candidates nominated by any party, should make a cross mark X under the party designation printed at the top of the ballot in the square made for that purpose. A ballot so marked, and having no other mark, will become [be counted] for all the candidates of that party in the column underneath, unless the names of some of the candidates of the party have been erased or a cross mark be placed in the square under the name or at any place in the space occupied by the name or names of candidates in another column, and will be counted for all the names written in lieu of one erased. If the voter wishes to vote for some of the candidates of different political parties, he should make a cross mark under the name of each candidate he desires to vote for, or at any place within the space in which the name is printed. If he wishes to vote for a person for a certain office whose name is not on the ballot, he must write the name in the blank space under the printed name of the candidate for the office. The ballot should not be marked in any other manner. If the ballot be spoiled, it must be returned to the ballot clerk, who must issue another in its stead, but not more than three in all to any one voter. Five minutes' time is allowed in booth to mark ballot. Unofficial ballots or memorandum to assist the voter in marking his ballot can be taken into the booth, and may be used to copy from. The ballot must not be shown so that any person can see how it has been marked by the voter. After it is marked, it should be folded so that the inside cannot be seen, but so that the printed endorsements and signatures of the ballot clerks on the outside may be seen. Then the voter should pass out of the booth or compartment, give his name to the inspector in charge of the ballot box, hand him his ballot to be placed in the box, and pass out of the voting place. A voter who declares to the presiding officer that he is unable to read, or that by reason of physical disability he is unable to mark his ballot, can have assistance of one or two election officers in marking the same, to be chosen by the voter; and if he declares that he is totally blind, he may be assisted by any person chosen by him from among the legal voters of the county. The presiding officer may administer an oath in his discretion, as to such person's disability. The party designations and candidates for the different offices are as follows:

TOOK A SHADOW TO BE A BURGLAR

SHERIFF AND POLICE FORCE
VICTIMS OF A REFLECTION.

Aroused Out of Bed and Hurried Out in the Rain to Find a Supposed Burglar in Sheldon's Hardware Store Was Only a Reflection From Hotel Myers Window.

Between three and four o'clock this morning Frank Wheelock and Martin Curtis thought that they discovered burglars in the store occupied by the Sheldon Hardware Company on Main street. They immediately telephoned to the jail and Sheriff W. H. Appleby and Turn-key Sam Brown tumbled into their clothes and hurried out into the pouring rain to take the supposed burglars in.

On arriving at the scene of action Mr. Wheelock and Mr. Curtis told them that they could see somebody flitting around in the store. So all four went over and looked through the store and explored all around it, but could find no burglar. Supposing that he would probably be in hiding somewhere about the store they went across the street to await developments.

In the meantime Chief of Police John W. Hogan had been aroused from bed and hurried up town to help locate the man. With this reinforcement they again essayed to find the burglar. In spite of the pouring rain they stood around in the wet and waited for him to show himself when Martin Curtis made a discovery.

There was a man sitting at a table in the office of the Myers hotel and it was the reflection in the window of the store that looked like someone flitting around inside. After several experiments to see if the discovery was right the party of officers departed for home resolved never again to answer a hurry up call unless assured it was a man and not a reflection.

WILLIAM R. BATES DEAD AT MOBILE

Well Known Former Janesville Resident Dies in Alabama—Remains Will Be Brought Here.

Word was received in this city this morning by M. A. Norris announcing the death of his uncle William R. Bates, which occurred at Mobile, Alabama, yesterday. Mr. Bates is an old resident of Janesville and well known by the older generation. He was a member of the famous Wisconsin Battery and served all through the war with it. He left here about ten years ago and went south where he met his death yesterday.

He is a man about sixty years of age and it is supposed by his relatives here that his age combined with other minor complications was the cause of his death. His wife was buried here four years ago and his remains will be laid to rest beside hers.

Mrs. W. H. Kirkland, a daughter from St. Paul, will arrive here this afternoon at four o'clock to make arrangements for the funeral, notice of which will be given later. James D. Bates and Mrs. A. B. Norris are brother and sister of the deceased.

MORNING MARRIAGES GROWN TO BE A FAD

Father Goebel Attempts to Explain Why Couples Prefer to Begin the Day in That Way.

There has been noticed to be quite a fad among the young people lately to get married early in the morning. All the weddings of the last few weeks have been at hours ranging from five to eight o'clock in the morning. Whether or not the excitement of the coming event keeps the parties up all night or to see how many handshakes the contracting parties will endure is hard to settle.

The Rev. Father Goebel was asked if he could account for them and he said: "Well, I think it is simply a freak of nature. You know there is nothing so strange as a girl and a young man just going to get married. The girl is so extremely modest over it that she doesn't want any one to know it, but nevertheless, she goes to each of her girl friends and tells them, 'now be sure and don't tell because I wouldn't have anybody know it for the world.'"

"Of course then no body in the town knows about it. I think that this extreme modesty and the desire to get out of town as quickly as possible after the marriage is responsible for the sudden early rising proclivities of the young people who are about to be married."

WILL GREET COOPER WITH BIG PARADE

REPUBLICAN CLUB HAS CHARGE OF THE ARRANGEMENTS.

An Effort to Excel the Demonstration Given For La Follette—Thursday Night Will Wind Up the Campaign in Janesville—Neighboring Towns Are Invited to Come.

The republicans of Janesville and vicinity have resolved to have another big rally on Thursday evening, November 1. The occasion is the speech given here that evening by the Hon. H. A. Cooper at the Opera House.

The young men's republican club who handled the La Follette celebration so well, met last evening in Justice of the Peace Jesse Earle's office and made arrangements for a big celebration and torchlight procession for the night of Thursday, November 1.

The club have four hundred torches that it bought for the LaFollette parade and will use them for this one.

The republican county committee is going to buy Roman candles enough to put to shame every Fourth of July parade that ever took place here and from all indications the parade will be a great success.

At the meeting of the republican club a committee was appointed to look after and arrange for the parade and to get the republicans into line.

Those who constitute this committee are E. D. Roberts, Frank Mount, J. C. Ulrich, W. H. Appleby and E. D. Hyde.

This committee has complete charge of the parade and will make it one that will be remembered here for many years to come.

The torches will be kept at the same place as they were last Thursday night, at the building north of the West Side engine house. The parade will form on River street and will take the same line of march as the LaFollette parade.

The line of march will be from North River street to Wall, west on Wall to Academy, south on Academy to Milwaukee, east on Milwaukee to Main, south on Main to South Third, countermarch and march north on Main to Milwaukee, east on Milwaukee to Opera House.

Arrangements have been made at the Opera House to have enough seats reserved so that the men who participate in the parade will have seats.

The seats will be held just for the marchers and no one will be allowed in them until all the marchers have been seated.

Two hundred chairs will be placed on the stage and prominent local republicans will occupy seats there. It is urged by the committee in charge that all men who participate in the parade will be at North River street at seven o'clock in the evening to get torches and form for the parade.

JOHN NICHOLS TO HOLD THE PROPERTY

SUPREME COURT REVERSES
THE CIRCUIT COURT.

Directions Are Given to Discuss the Action—This Is Considered to Be an Adjudication of the Action—The Parties Reside At Beloit.

The supreme court at Madison today handed down one of the most important decisions that has been before it in many years on an appeal from the Rock County Circuit court. This action was commenced the 6th day of July, 1899, by the plaintiff to compel the defendant to deed certain property consisting of three store buildings and real estate upon which they are situated in Beloit to her.

The plaintiff claimed that Robert Hall of the City of Beloit died intestate in 1896 leaving surviving him his widow who is the plaintiff in this action. That at the time of his death he was about seventy-five years of age and that just before his death he undertook to deed the property worth about $20,000 by the aid of the defendant to the plaintiff his widow.

Mr. Nichols was taken into the family when an infant and always treated as a member of the family, learning Mr. Hall's trade and later becoming associated with him in the shoe business.

John Nichols was treated as a son and was promised the property on the death of Mr. Hall. Mr. Nichols had been in the possession of this property since the death of Mr. Hall in 1896. Mrs. Hall recently married Mr. Fillingham and soon after the trouble began. Mrs. Fillingham immediately planned to get possession of this property which she supposed she was entitled to, bringing this action for its recovery.

The case was tried before Judge Dunwiddie in April last and he found from the testimony and evidence given in the case that there had been a fraud committed by Mr. Nichols because of his failure to deed the property which he had taken in trust for Mrs. Hall, but holding and claiming it as his own. Mr. Nichols not being satisfied with the finding of the trial court took an appeal to the Supreme court which resulted in the above reversal with directions to dismiss action. Smith & Pierce and J. B. Dow appeared for plaintiff and E. D. McGowan appeared for defendant.

TRY TO INTIMIDATE MADISON STUDENTS

Efforts of Democrats to Prevent Them
from Voting at the General Election November 6.

Madison, Oct. 30.—[Special].—Various rumors are afloat here to the effect that when the students of the University attempt to cast their ballots a week from today, the democratic challengers will raise objections. It is said that students who attempt to vote will be arrested.

In view of the fact that the student vote, as ascertained in the recent Daily Cardinal election, is fully 5 to 1 in favor of the republican ticket, it is hard to locate a motive for this threatened action with any party other than the democratic party.

The contest in this congressional district between Dahle and Aylward, is likely to be close, and a difference of several hundred student votes might cut a very material figure in determining the result.

The right of students to vote in Madison has not heretofore been seriously questioned, and this new move is looked upon by republicans as democratic expediency. Attorney-General Emmet R. Hicks has prepared an opinion in which he asserts that the right of students to vote in their college town can not be questioned providing the student claims residence there rather than in his home town.

It may be that the plan of the democrats to challenge the student vote is merely "in the air," and is intended only to keep some easily intimidated students from voting, who would remain away from the polls rather than be submitted to the embarrassment of a challenge. Certain it is, however, that hundreds of students will appear at the voting places next Tuesday to register their approval of McKinley and Roosevelt and the entire republican ticket.

The Minnesota Game.
A student mass meeting will be held tomorrow night in order to persuade the largest possible number of students to take advantage of the low, $5.75, rate, to Minneapolis. It is hoped to get a crowd of four or five hundred Cardinal voters to partly offset the hordes of Maroon and Gold men who will cheer their team to its mightiest efforts.

At the Wednesday night mass meeting three members of the Athletic board of directors are to be elected. Student football manager, A. K. Wheeler, seems to be the most popular candidate, and is practically certain of election.

TO INVOLVE SENATOR MASON.

Effort to Bring Him Into a Quarrel with Gen. Ludington.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 29.—An effort is being made to involve Senator Mason in a dispute which a former clerk of the quartermaster-general's office is trying to bring on with Gen. Ludington, the quartermaster-general. John Orme Cole, the former clerk, late last spring filed charges of extravagance and bad administration, and succeeded in interesting Senator Mason in his behalf.

Gen. Ludington made a formal report to the secretary of war last June on the charges, which, Mr. Cole says, Senator Mason characterized as evasive, irrelevant, weak and unmanly. Mr. Cole has addressed an open letter to the secretary of war reiterating his charges and has prepared an affidavit in which he says that Gen. Ludington's report "falsely represents the records, facts and methods of business in his office" and "are an imposition upon the secretary of war, as well as upon Senator William E. Mason, who has called for an investigation of these matters."

SAYS SALUTE WAS FIRED.

Capt. Pelly of British Cruiser Psyche
Tells of New York Incident.

Hamilton, Oct. 28.—Capt. Francis R. Pelly, commander of the British third-class cruiser Psyche, was interviewed in the hospital today by a representative of the Associated Press in regard to the charge that he had not fired a salute while off Governor's island, New York. He said the Psyche arrived in New York waters in a fog and steamed right up the harbor. No pilot nor any official of any kind visited her. Capt. Pelly came to anchor at the foot of West Thirty-fifth street, New York, where he saw two French warships lying. As soon as he anchored Capt. Pelly fired a salute of twenty-one guns (intended as a salute to the American flag), to which he got no reply. He then saluted the Frenchmen, who returned the salute. Capt. Pelly has no complaint to make, but expressed a desire that his explanation be communicated to the British consul in New York.

Yukon Natives Are Dying.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 29.—News of frightful sufferings by natives of the Yukon valley from a mysterious epidemic is brought to Dawson by Rev. Father John B. Rene, in charge of the Roman Catholic missions on the Yukon. The disease is described as a combination of pneumonia, measles and typhoid fever. At Holy Cross mission sixty out of 150 Indians died in less than two months. Famine now threatens, as the natives have not been able to lay up supplies of fish and game for the winter. The plague has been general all along the river, and along the coast of Behring sea, and thousands of natives have died and many more will die from the disease itself or starvation following in its train.

Don't forget that next Tuesday, Oct. 30th, is your last chance to register.

POND'S EXTRACT

There is only ONE POND'S EXTRACT, and everybody knows its purity, strength and great medicinal value. Don't take the weak, watery Witch Hazel preparations represented to be "the same as" POND'S EXTRACT. They generally contain "wood alcohol," which irritates the skin, and, taken internally, is a deadly poison. Get genuine POND'S EXTRACT, sold ONLY in SEALED bottles, in BUFF wrappers.

Warm Homes

And an even temperature can be had more economically and conveniently with a Favorite Base Burner...

Than in any other way. They require less coal, are more cleanly and beautiful than any other stove in the world. The "Favorite" Base Burner has more heating capacity, and is the most economical Stove ever made. Why? Because it has about 1-3 more radiating surface as compared with same sizes of other Base Burners, and is mounted and fitted perfectly.

DEAR MADAM

We beg to invite you to call and inspect our unexcelled line of latest styles...

Ladies' Jackets, Capes, Golf Skirts,
Walking Skirts, Dress Skirts,
Tailor-Made suits, also our Rich Fur Garments

The abnormally mild weather during the month of October has forced several large manufacturers, renowned for quality of garments and exclusiveness of styles, to unload and turn into cash a surplus stock, manufactured in anticipation of heavy demands, and left on their hands because it has been too warm. Rather than wait until it might be too late, they have accepted our offers, (in many instances far below manufacturing cost,) and now we are able to offer you, at the beginning of the season, bargains such as you ordinarily would not look for until after Christmas.
